VERACRUZ, MEXICO

The state of Veracruz stretches along the east coast of central Mexico, and rises from coastal plains, through tropical rain forests and mangrove swamps up to high mountains in the west and north-west. It offers a mosaic of diverse vegetation and produces a variety of fruits and well renowned quality coffee. Veracruz represents one of the largest economies in the country: it is considered Mexico's leading seaport due to its strategic location, it is home to a wide range of natural resources, and it stands out for its leadership in the petrochemical industry.

The state of Veracruz has a rich past, heritage of pre-Hispanic civilizations that lived around this area. The Olmec Culture, “mother culture of the Americas”, flourished in Veracruz. With the arrival of the Spanish conquistadors, it became a melting pot of continental America, enriched by a blend of Indigenous, European and Afro-Caribbean influences, vibrantly evident in its architecture, cuisine and music.

Visitors can enjoy the beauty of Veracruz through its biodiversity, archaeological sites, colonial cities, outdoor activities and a variety of museums, among which is the Xalapa Anthropology Museum, the second largest of its kind in the country.

UV AT A GLANCE

Universidad Veracruzana (UV), founded in 1944, is one of Mexico's largest public higher education institutions. # INTERCULTURAL UNIVERSIDAD VERACRUZANA - UVI

UVI is an academic entity created to serve both the indigenous and non-indigenous population of mainly rural areas in intercultural regions of Veracruz. It offers three Bachelor's Degrees: the Bachelor's Degree in Intercultural Management, the Bachelor's Degree in Law with Focus on Legal Pluralism and the Bachelor's Degree in Agroecology and Food Sovereignty; and a Master's Degree in Nahuatl Language and Culture. It is located in five rural regions: Huasteca (north), Grandes Montañas (centre), Totonacapan (north), Las Selvas (south) and Xalapa.

UVI provides access to higher education with an intercultural approach, fosters sustainable development, promotes the local languages and cultures, and builds a two-way relationship between the academic programmes offered by the university and UVI itself.

INTERNATIONALIZATION

MEMBERSHIPS

INTERNATIONAL AGREEMENTS

Universidad Veracruzana is always open to new academic partnerships and collaboration with educational institutions around the world.

It currently has over 280 international agreements with partner universities and organizations from over 30 countries, for student and faculty exchange, cultural and scientific cooperation, as well as internships and short stays.

ART & CULTURE

UV is well known for its support to the development and promotion of art and culture. It is home to a variety of classical, popular and traditional music groups, as well as renowned theatre and dance companies. Its highly distinguished Xalapa Symphony Orchestra is one of the oldest in Mexico, and its new concert hall “Sala Tlaqná” is considered one of the best in the country. UV is also proud of its Anthropology Museum, home to a priceless collection of countless pre-Colombian artefacts.

UV organizes prestigious festivals, art exhibitions, and a number of performing arts and literary events throughout the year, which has contributed significantly to place UV at the forefront in the arts in Mexico.

SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

UV has embraced a social responsibility towards urban and rural communities in disadvantage and intercultural regions within the state of Veracruz. It generates the conditions in which it can contribute, in collaboration with different parties, to the sustainable development of society through a variety of engagement and outreach programmes, for public, productive and marginalized sectors, while fostering personal and professional training in real social contexts.

SOME OF UV'S ENGAGEMENT PROGRAMMES INCLUDE:

- University Social Service Brigades (BUSS)
- University Brigades at the Company (BUE)
- Outstanding Community Engagement Student Projects
- UV's Peraj Programme "Adopt a Friend"
- Productive Sector Engagement
- Public Sector Engagement
- University Houses
- University Network - Digital Community Centres
- Arts and cultural programmes

UV has seven University Houses, located in key disadvantaged urban, rural and indigenous areas, where the university community can stay and carry out, in situ, practical work and research. These are essential spaces for engagement that enable the integration of the substantive functions of the institution, strengthening the update of academic programmes with social pertinence and consolidating social processes for community development with a perspective on sustainability.

Students have the opportunity to gain practical work experience and carry out projects and research within multidisciplinary teams, in areas such as health, education, sustainability, agriculture, art and culture.

ATTENTION TO VISITORS

The Coordination of Programmes and Services is responsible for providing advice and support in relation to accommodation, immigration procedures, outreach services and cultural integration, so that the visiting community can achieve a successful mobility at Universidad Veracruzana.

In this regard, it assists students, professors and representatives of other institutions, both national and international, before and after their arrival at UV.
