

Mit Dank für die freundliche Unterstützung:

Niedersächsisches Ministerium
für Wissenschaft und Kultur

Gefördert von

UNIVERSITÄTSGESELLSCHAFT
OLDENBURG e.V.

Border Matters:

Feb
26-28
2020

The Formation of Boundaries
in Migration Societies
and the Responsibility of Scholarship

Concluding Conference of the PhD Program
"Boundary Formations
in Migration Societies"

Carl von Ossietzky
University Oldenburg

<https://uol.de/migg/>

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 26

18:00 Opening
19:30 Reception

Bibliothekssaal

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 27 A14 Hörsaal 3 09:00–10:15 Keynote

Spatial Convulsions, Racial Concussions: The Borders and Boundaries of the "European" Problem—Nicholas De Genova

10:30–12:45 Panel 1 A 14 1-112

10:30–12:45 Panel 2 A 14 1-113

Racism – (Ir)Relevant in a German Context?! Contributions by Critical Race Theories & De/Postcolonial Theories for (Critical) Scholarship

Migration and Border Governance in the European Border Regime during and after 2015

Positioned Ethnographic Research on the Entanglement of Racism and Classism in Welcome Initiatives—Khorshid Khodabakhshreshad

"Fighting Root Causes of Migration" in the Context of the Crisis of the EUropean Border Regime—Judith Kopp

Memory, Knowledge and Empowerment – Critical Perspectives on Knowledge Production and Knowledge Transfer—Iris Rajanayagam

Organised Disorder? Tracing Ambiguity, Incoherence & Discretion in the Governance of Migrants' Arrival and Reception in South Italy—Karl Heyer

Agency, Refusal, Tokenism – Power Relations in the Research on Racial Discrimination—Isabel Dean

Visual Identity Politics as Border Politics. European Icons in the "Summer of Migration" 2015—Laura Holderied

14:00–16:30 Panel 1

14:00–16:30 Panel 2

Does Shame Educate? Educational Processes of White Germans Concerning their Involvement in Racist Societal Relations—Tobias Linnemann

Coalition of the (Un)Willing: The Intra-European Border Regime after the Summer of Migration 2015—David Niebauer

In Which Way are Race and State Related?—Shadi Kooroshy

"Bleibeperspektive" Asylum Classifications and the Struggles about Prognosis—Simon Sperling

comment by Nikita Dhawan

comment by Bernd Kasperek

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 27

18:00–19:30 Panel 5

Cadillac

Panel discussion "Academic Knowledge Production and Responsibility"
Podiumsdiskussion zum Thema „Wissenschaft und Verantwortung“

Yasemin Karakaşoğlu (Bremen)
Wilhelm Krull (VolkswagenStiftung)
Paul Mecheril (Bielefeld)
Hatice Pinar Şenoğuz (Göttingen)

The panel discussion will take place at the / Die Podiumsdiskussion findet statt im Cadillac, Huntestraße 4a, 26135 Oldenburg

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 28 A 14 Hörsaal 3 09:00–10:15 Keynote

The Racist Violence of "Not Racism," the Role of Academics, and the Resurgence of White Supremacy—Alana Lentin

10:30–14:30 Panel 3 A 14 1-112

10:30–14:30 Panel 4 A 14 1-113

(Re-)production of Belonging in the Context of Projects of 'Integration'

Contested Spaces of Arrival – Negotiating Mechanisms of Inclusion and Exclusion in Local Migration Societies from a Historical Perspective

Becoming Part of it – The Impossibility of Performance—Alisha Heinemann

Undoing the Work of the 'Windrush Scandal' in Britain: How Myths of a Racial Past Distort the Racial Present—Kennetta Hammond Perry

'Integration' as Strategy of Valorization and as a Method of Disciplining—Laila Lucas/Micòl Feuchter

Between Acceptance, Toleration and Exclusion: Non-Elite Indian Lives in the Hamburg Dock Neighborhood, 1920–1950—Svenja von Jan

Epistemische Machtverhältnisse an Hochschulen im Spiegel der Erfahrungen geflüchteter Studierender—Noelia P. Streicher (presentation in German)

Conditions of Inclusion, Exclusion and Agency: The everyday Experience of British Colonial Seafarers in South Shields, 1919–1939—Hannah Elizabeth Martin

comment by Sabine Hess

comment by Bettina Severin-Barboutie

NOTE: The program may be subject to change